Announcement: Payne Hackenbracht & Sullivan merges with Cohen Seglias Pallas Greenhall & Furman PC

It's no secret that, when some law firms join together, the pieces don't quite fit. That's not the story with Cohen Seglias and Payne Hackenbracht & Sullivan. Effective April 1, 2009, a twenty year approach to construction, labor, employment and commercial practices of one firm will synthesize with the strong national federal construction practice of another.

Both firms welcome the blending of resources and the cementing of shared expertise. From this union, what emerges is a robust practice that will justly serve the vital needs of our clients – piece by precise piece.
