Jason C. Tomasulo Joins Cohen Seglias as Senior Counsel

PHILADELPHIA (October 27, 2009) – Cohen Seglias Pallas Greenhall & Furman announced today that Jason C. Tomasulo has joined the firm as senior counsel resident in the Philadelphia office and will focus his practice on construction law and government contracts.

“We are very excited about Jason joining our firm,” said Edward Seglias, the firm’s marketing partner, who added, “He is a highly accomplished lawyer with a broad and varied base of experience that will serve us – and our clients – exceedingly well.”

Prior to joining Cohen Seglias, Mr. Tomasulo served as General Counsel for Keating Building Corporation, an ENR Top 400 general building contractor in the Mid-Atlantic region, where he negotiated contracts with owners and subcontractors, provided legal and risk management advice regarding project issues and managed litigation. Before joining Keating, he was an attorney in the Washington, D.C. office of Thelen LLP.

Mr. Tomasulo earned a J.D. from The George Washington University School of Law in 1997 and graduated magna cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa from Boston College in 1994.
